

Voices of Recovery from Soberstock 2011

My recovery is everything to me; since I have been clean and found God, everything has been wonderful. I strongly encourage everyone who is in recovery to be strong and remember to let go and let god.

Thank you and God Bless.

-Jeremy

My life without drinking and drugs is beyond my wildest dreams. Living in recovery is the only way to live. Recovery allows me to breathe. It allows me to be a mother, daughter, sister, and friend. It allows me to be the ME I was meant to be.

Life is good. God is good. Recovery has taught me how to live.
