

Recovery & Me Voices from Soberstock 2009

By now we all know the truth. Being sober can produce so many challenges that sometimes we see the God in all of us, the worth, the trust, the outcome of hope for all of us.

As seen in the elders, the ones who hope for us as Aunts, Uncles, Grandmothers, and Grandfathers. Who induced in us, as well as all strong produced in us, will we instead to hope for ourselves and others to hang on and make this world if we want one hell of a ride.

-Anonymous