

Recovery & Me
Voices from Soberstock 2009

The day I finally surrendered my will I asked the Lord, "All of you and none of me God. Let your will be done."

Two minutes later a cop pulled up and took me to jail and that was June 16, 2004.

Today I celebrate five years sobriety and I work with the recovering community."

-Dawn M., Reading, PA